Privacy Policy

Whether you are a donor, volunteer, organization or community partner, we have a commitment to conduct business honestly and protect your privacy.

DFSL requires that your personal information be held in strict confidence. We keep your personal information as accurate, complete and up-to-date as is required to fulfill the purpose/s for which you provided your personal information. We do not give, sell, share or trade your information to other organizations or individuals.

Personal information means any information or set of information that could be used to identify a natural person. Examples of different purposes for which we may collect information include but are not limited to registration process for registered users; clients who access DFSL services; and voluntary submissions to DFSL requesting information about our services, signing up to receive information from us or become a volunteer; or sending us an email.

All website user accounts are password protected; only users have access to their individual passwords. Our email, database and website are SSL encrypted. Access to client and donor data is restricted to Dress for Success employees who use the information solely for work purposes and who are subject to strict confidentiality obligations.

If you have questions about our website or Privacy Policy or wish to review information collected and make corrections if needed, please contact us at (502) 584-8050 or louisville@dressforsuccess.org.
